CINÉ SCHOOLS

AdaptatiOn

Stories don't stop at the page, ...they ignite the imagination!

This term, Ciné Schools unleashes students, empowering them to turn their favourite books into captivating short films.

They run the whole show under the guidance of talented, award winning filmmakers and award winning educators.

They build confidence, sharpen critical thinking, master teamwork, and solve problems like pros - skills that last way beyond the final cut.

Every filmmaker earns certification accredited by The National Film and Television School.

It all explodes at our cinema-style showcases supported by The Children's International Film Festival : bold, fresh adaptations lighting up the big screen.

Where reading meets filmmaking and words become worlds.
