

All About Pride

What is Pride?

Gay Pride, also known as LGBT+ Pride, is celebrated in June. It is a month of celebration of LGBT+ communities around the world. During Pride month, people come together to celebrate love, friendship and the special and unique things that make us who we are.

March in Pride

Pride marches, parades and festivals celebrate the differences between people in our world and promote equal rights for all.

They are held all over the world.

Pride around the World

During Pride month, celebrations, parades and festivals like these take place in cities all around the world.

Pride around the World

At Pride celebrations, people often display the rainbow flag.

Rainbow Flag

The rainbow flag, also known as the gay pride flag or LGBT+ flag, is a symbol of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender pride.

Lots of people will wave rainbow flags at pride marches to show that they are proud of who they are and that everyone should be treated equally.

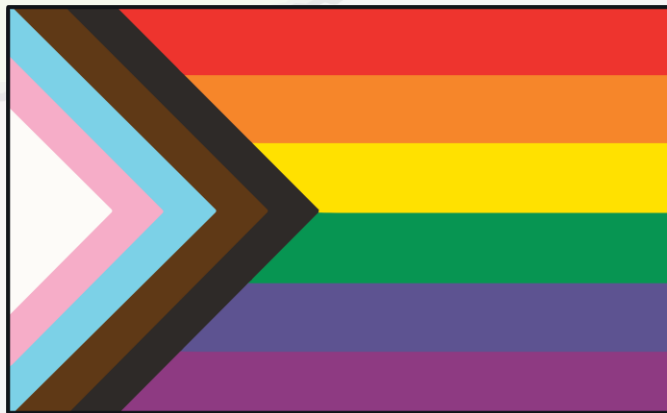

Photo courtesy of realcereal and sdaponte (@flickr.com) – granted under creative commons licence – attribution

All Different, All Wonderful

Things to remember:

- Everyone should feel like they can be themselves.
- Everyone should be allowed to be proud of who they are.
- Everyone deserves to be treated with respect.

Have Pride!

Everyone is special and unique. We should be proud of the things that make us different.

Why are you proud to be you?

