

Family Rainbow

Think about your family and community. What colors do you think of? Maybe red for love. Maybe yellow for joy. What colors does your family love? Create a color code to show what each color represents, and then color in your rainbow to show the pride you have in your family.

